Partnership Proposal – Educational Partner

The University of Arabic Calligraphy (UAC) is an international institution dedicated to the preservation, teaching, and innovation of Arabic calligraphy as both an artistic heritage and an academic discipline. With a global mission to expand the appreciation of calligraphy, UAC invites partners to join in meaningful collaborations that advance education, culture, and innovation.

Shared Vision

As an Educational Partner, your organization will work with UAC to develop co-branded academic courses, workshops, and training programs. Together, we aim to enhance student and faculty development, expand access to resources, and advance the global visibility of Arabic calligraphy.

Scope of Collaboration

The partnership will include the following areas of collaboration:

- Co-develop academic courses, workshops, and training programs.
- Support UAC students and faculty through scholarships or research grants.
- Provide access to UAC's academic resources and calligraphy archives.

Responsibilities

UAC Responsibilities:

- Provide academic expertise, teaching staff, and calligraphy archives.
- Ensure quality assurance of programs.
- Offer institutional recognition and co-branding.

Partner Responsibilities:

- Provide financial or academic support (e.g., scholarships, grants).
- Collaborate in program development and delivery.
- Promote the partnership through organizational networks.

Mutual Benefits

- Strengthened academic collaboration and visibility.
- Opportunities for co-branded programs with international reach.
- Direct contribution to the growth of Arabic calligraphy education globally.

Duration & Renewal

The Educational Partnership Agreement is proposed for an initial term of three (3) years, with the possibility of renewal upon mutual agreement.
