Partnership Proposal – Innovation Partner

The University of Arabic Calligraphy (UAC) is dedicated to preserving the heritage of Arabic calligraphy while pioneering modern innovations in teaching, research, and digital transformation. UAC believes that innovation is key to expanding the global reach of calligraphy and adapting it to new generations and technologies.

Shared Vision

As an Innovation Partner, your organization will collaborate with UAC to develop digital tools, e-learning platforms, and research initiatives. Together, we will create new methodologies for teaching calligraphy and foster innovation through initiatives such as the annual 'Calligraphy Innovation Awards'.

Scope of Collaboration

The partnership will include the following areas of collaboration:

- Collaborate on developing digital tools and platforms for calligraphy learning.
- Co-create innovative teaching methodologies.
- Participate in the annual 'Calligraphy Innovation Awards'.
- Support research initiatives exploring the intersection of calligraphy, technology, and education.

Responsibilities

UAC Responsibilities:

- Provide academic expertise, calligraphy archives, and teaching frameworks.
- Facilitate access to faculty, researchers, and students for collaborative projects.
- Recognize the Innovation Partner across relevant programs and awards.

Partner Responsibilities:

- Contribute technological expertise, funding, or resources.
- Engage in the design, development, and testing of digital platforms or methodologies.
- Promote innovative outcomes through organizational networks.

Mutual Benefits

- Opportunity to pioneer global innovation in Arabic calligraphy education.
- Recognition through the 'Calligraphy Innovation Awards'.
- Strengthened reputation for supporting cultural heritage through technology.
- Access to UAC's academic and cultural networks worldwide.

Duration & Renewal

The Innovation Partnership Agreement is proposed for an initial term of three (3) years, with the possibility of renewal upon mutual consent.
