Partnership Proposal – Cultural Partner

The University of Arabic Calligraphy (UAC) is committed to promoting Arabic calligraphy as a cultural heritage that unites communities and strengthens intercultural understanding. UAC seeks cultural partners to collaborate on initiatives that highlight the value of calligraphy in local and global contexts.

Shared Vision

As a Cultural Partner, your organization will work with UAC on projects that promote Arabic calligraphy in communities worldwide. Together, we aim to raise awareness of the cultural significance of calligraphy through campaigns, exhibitions, and documentaries.

Scope of Collaboration

The partnership will include the following areas of collaboration:

- Partner on projects promoting Arabic calligraphy in local and international communities.
- Co-develop campaigns or documentaries showcasing calligraphy's cultural importance.
- Gain visibility through UAC's global cultural network.

Responsibilities

UAC Responsibilities:

- Provide expertise in calligraphy history, techniques, and cultural interpretation.
- Facilitate access to exhibitions, cultural programs, and international audiences.
- Ensure recognition of the Cultural Partner in relevant initiatives.

Partner Responsibilities:

- Support projects through funding, outreach, or cultural resources.
- Collaborate on the design and execution of campaigns or documentaries.
- Promote the partnership through local and international cultural networks.

Mutual Benefits

- Enhanced visibility across global cultural platforms.
- Contribution to preserving and promoting Arabic calligraphy as cultural heritage.
- Strengthened intercultural exchange and dialogue.
- Opportunities for co-branded cultural initiatives.

Duration & Renewal

The Cultural Partnership Agreement is proposed for an initial term of three (3) years, with the possibility of renewal based on mutual agreement.
