Proposal – Sponsorship Partner

The University of Arabic Calligraphy (UAC) is dedicated to advancing Arabic calligraphy as a global art form and academic discipline. Through sponsorship partnerships, UAC seeks to provide free learning resources, organize cultural events, and expand access to calligraphy education worldwide. Sponsorship partners play a vital role in supporting UAC's mission while gaining premium visibility across diverse platforms.

Shared Vision

As a Sponsorship Partner, your organization will contribute financial support for UAC's programs and initiatives. Together, we will empower students, preserve cultural heritage, and expand global access to high-quality educational resources.

Scope of Collaboration

The partnership will include the following areas of collaboration:

- Contribute financial support for UAC programs and initiatives.
- Sponsor free learning resources or tools for students worldwide.
- Enjoy premium branding opportunities across UAC's digital and event platforms.

Responsibilities

UAC Responsibilities:

- Ensure proper recognition of Sponsorship Partners across digital and event platforms.
- Provide reports on program outcomes supported by sponsorships.
- Offer co-branding opportunities in resources, events, and campaigns.

Partner Responsibilities:

- Provide agreed financial contributions for selected programs or initiatives.
- Collaborate on outreach and promotion of sponsored resources.
- Maintain alignment with UAC's cultural and educational values.

Mutual Benefits

- Premium branding visibility across UAC's website, events, and publications.
- Direct contribution to empowering students and promoting Arabic calligraphy education.
- Recognition as a cultural sponsor of heritage and academic advancement.
- Opportunities for long-term engagement with UAC's international community.

Duration & Renewal

The Sponsorship Partnership Agreement is proposed for an initial term of one (1) year, with the possibility of renewal based on mutual consent.
